Workshop on the Microfoundations of Institutions - 6 and 7 April
On April 6-7, 2017, the Management & Organization department of the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam will host the first workshop of the research network on the “Microfoundations of Institutions.” The network is funded by the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG) and co-organized by Patrick Haack (HEC Lausanne), Jost Sieweke (VU Amsterdam), and Lauri Wessel (FU Berlin). The network members are mostly post-docs and assistant professor from Germany, Austria, Switzerland and the Netherlands. The aim of the network is to facilitate exchanges between scholars on how to advance research on the micro-foundations of institutions. During the first workshop, Stine Grodal (Boston University; April 7 at 9:00 in Forum 2) and Joep Cornelissen (Erasmus University Rotterdam; April 6 at 15:00 in Forum 2) will give key note speeches. All members of the M&O department are kindly invited to attend the key notes; to register, please send a mail to... should support faculty involved in executive education in designing and delivering programs with more efficiency and value to the participants and their organizations. The talk is based on published research and work in progress, as well as personal experience of the speaker as an executive education faculty member and program director.

Research Seminar Microfoundations - 5 April

After searching for general laws that determine behavior, social scientists have turned to search for ‘microfoundations’. Microfoundations approach to social science represents a new way of explaining social entities, and especially how they emerge and change. But what are microfoundations? Or in fact, what are the different types of microfoundations? How do I study microfoundations? And how is microfoundations approach different from multi-level analysis? Or is it?

To learn more, come to the Research Seminar of the Management and Organization department of Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam on Microfoundations of institutional logics, inequality, strategic alliances, and management fashions. It will be held Wednesday, 5th of April 2017, between 15:00 and 17:00, in HG-16A00, the Kerkzaal on the 16th floor of the main building. Patrick Haack (U. of Lausanne), Jost Sieweke (VU), Lauri Wessel (Freie U. Berlin), Brian Tjemkes (VU), and Stefan Heusinkveld (VU) will present. For more information please click here.
