NEWS

Dr. Yuval Engel successfully defended his PhD thesis
On October 15, Yuval Engel successfully defended his PhD thesis, titled “Venturing into the unknown, but not for the first time: An examination of firm-founders’ careers & entrepreneurial decision-making under uncertainty” and obtained the grade of Doctor.

Since completing his PhD trajectory at ABRI, Yuval is working as Assistant Professor of Entrepreneurship and Innovation at the University of Amsterdam (UVA) and the Amsterdam Business School. He received his MSc in Business Administration (Cum-Laude) at Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, where he also completed his BSc in International Business Administration (Cum-Laude) and participated in the interdisciplinary VU Honors Program. His PhD research at the Amsterdam Business Research Institute (ABRI) was supported by a prestigious grant from the Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research (NWO). Yuval’s main research interests are entrepreneurial decision-making under uncertainty, entrepreneurial networking, career management, and mindfulness meditation in the workplace. He also has experience teaching topics such as entrepreneurial action, leadership, and cross-cultural management at both undergraduate and graduate levels.

ABRI congratulates Yuval on this great achievement.
